Thank you for all the support — I would never have made it without you, my parents, my brothers and sisters. I miss you: Junior House, my African family, all my friends, all my teachers. Thanks for being there: The Sykes, Mrs. Royal, Mr. Edwards, and my second parents — the Macquebelas. Mr. Rogers — Thanks for being my best friend and teacher.

LISTEN TO THE MUSTN'TS

Listen to the MUSTN'TS, child.
Listen to the DON'TS
Listen to the SHOULDNTS
The IMPOSSIBLES, the WONT'S
Listen to the NEVER HAVES
Then listen close to me—
Anything can happen, child.
ANYTHING can be.

Lea Andreassen

It is contrary to the nature of mystery to stand still. Yet it is always there, somewhere, a world on the other side of the mirror or the camel pack, a promise in the next pair of eyes that smile at us. We glimpse it when we stand still.

— Tom Robbins, "Still Life with Woodpecker"

Mom and Dad — I love you more now, after four years and two busts than I ever imagined possible.

Johnson family — I can't remember who met who first, all I can remember is all of us together. To those left behind, my sincere apologies. To those graduating, my sincere gratitude. I couldn't have done it alone.

Yeah Jack!

Taylor Antrim

When I was one-and-twenty
I heard a wise man say,
Give crowns and pounds and guineas
But not your heart away;
Give pearls and rubies
But keep your fancy free.
But I was one-and-twenty,
No use to talk to me.

When I was one-and-twenty
I heard him say again,
The heart out of the bosom
Was never given in vain;
'Tis paid with sighs a plenty
And solo for endless rue.
And I am two-and-twenty,
and oh 'tis true, 'tis true.

— AE Housman

Gregory Todd Arata

Delphine Auffret

Je t'apprends rien si je te que tu te donnes du mal pourrien. Le grand lasso que tu m'enroules autour des reins, qui me retient, n'y fera rien. Cet horizon qui s'offre a moi me fait du bien. Je regarde ailleurs parce qu'ailleurs est mon chemin. — Jill Caplan

Kurtis Auguste

Let me not pray to be sheltered from dangers but to be fearless in facing them.

Let me not beg for the stilling of my pain but for the heart to conquer it.

Let me not look for allies in life's battlefield
but to my own strength.

Let me not crave in anxious fear to be saved but hope for the patience to win my freedom.

Grant me that I may not be a coward, feeling your mercy in my success alone;
but let me find the grasp of your hand in my failure.

Full of fear, Fredrik and Lotta, gazed into a large dim hall. There were thousands and thousands of goblins and trolls, wrinkled, hunched, grizzled beings, shrieking and cackling and scuttling about. They carried frozen glow-worms on rotten twigs, which cast a dull, phosphorescent light in the dark. Should one want to make a grand light, he would stroke a large black cat along the back until sparks flashed out. But then many others would shriek, "Stop! Stop! It is far too light; no one can stand such a glare!"

Four years has been a long time to be here, but I made it with the help and support from all my friends both here and home, and of course from my Mom. George, I guess you've coped with me long enough. Have a good senior year. Jess, you always managed to be there whenever I needed you; thank you. Blaine, remember those times on the trails at home, we had a great time at Holly River. Matt, I guess we'll always have time to play frisbee or do "Kanawha Run."

Special thanks goes to you, Betsy. (I love you) You never gave up on me. As far as I'm concerned, you can have the last words. You would manage to get it anyway. Oh, by the way, you've always been right. It was fun. I guess I'll see y'all around.

Because I know that time is always time
And place is always and only place
And what is actual is only actual for one time and only for one place
I rejoice that things are as they are and
I renounce the blessed face
And renounce the voice
Because I cannot hope to turn again
Consequently I rejoice, having to construct something
Upon which to rejoice
And pray to God to have mercy upon us
And I pray that I may forget
These matters that with myself I too much discuss
Too much explain
Because I do not hope to turn again
Let these words answer
For what is done, not to be done again
May the judgement not be too heavy upon us

Because these wings are no longer wings to fly
But merely fans to beat the air
The air which is now thoroughly small and dry Smaller and dryer than the will Teach us to care and not to care
Teach us to sit still.

"To confirm what I have now said, and further to shew the miserable effects of a confined education; I shall here insert a passage which will hardly obtain belief. In hopes to ingratiate myself farther in His Majesty's favor, I told him of an Invention discovered by me three and four hundred Years ago, to make a certain powder, into a heap of which the smallest spark of fire falling, would consume the whole in a Moment, although it were as big as a Mountain; and make it all fly up in the Air together, with a Noise and Motion greater than thunder. That, a proper Quantity of this powder rammed into a hollow Tube of Brass or Iron according to its Measure, would drive a Ball of Iron or Lead with such a violence and force, as nothing was able to sustain its force. That, the largest Balls discharged would not only Destroy whole Rankss of an Army; but batter the strongest Walls to the Ground; sink down with a thousand Men in each, to the Bottom of the Sea; and when linked together by a Chain, would cut through Masts and Rigging; divide Hundreds of Bodies in the Midde, and lay all Waste to them."

"After a while you learn the subtle difference, between holding a hand and changing a soul. And you learn that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security. And you learn that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises. And you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and eyes open. And you learn to build your roots on today because tomorrow's grounds are too uncertain for your plans. And futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight. And after a while you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much. So plant your own soul. Instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers. And you'll learn that you really can endure. This guy goes into a hospital. His wife's just had a baby and he can't wait to see them both. So he meets the doctor and he says, "Oh Doc, I've been so worried! How are they?"

The Doc smiles and says, "They're fine. You're wife's delivered a healthy baby boy. You're one lucky guy."

So the guy pushes into the maternity ward with his flowers. But his wife's bed is empty. "Doc?" He says and turns around and the doctor and the nurses wave their arms and scream in his face.

"April Fool! Your wife's dead and the baby's a spastic!"

"Life is tough. But when I go through it, I find joy."

"PA is a great community, one with trust and understanding. I got to know lots of friends, American and international, teachers and students, with whom I share my feelings. I have become a part of it. And I want to go deep and search for its beauty.

I'm just an average ordinary guy. Every Saturday I work in the yard; pick up the dog poop, hope it's hard. Are you just an average ordinary guy? If by chance you are, I wish that perhaps some day you will "get a focus."

This is what I must do according to my wonderous history teacher, Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams is groovie, but he thinks I'm a tool. This is fine and I don't mind. The moral of this glorious tale is: A. Get a focus and then you will get a 5 in history. B. When pulling all nighters for the POT book, do not listen to bizarro radio stations. In fact the best thing to do is listen to a Top 40 station. This will no doubt make you happy and since the same ten songs play throughout the weeeeeee hours of the night and early morning, you will learn the words in minutes and be able to have many dance parties in the scam room. Well, that's it. Heed my words of wisdom and keep on dancing. DISCO TILL YOU WRETCH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Four Year Seniors

The 1991-1992 Pot Pourri Board

Bill Benedetto — Head
Claudia Fiore — Layout Head
Peter Stein — Photo Head
Nicole Quinlan — Sports Photo Head
Stewart Williamson — Copy Head
Ellie Miller — All-nighter Crew
Soiya Gecaga — Business Head
Lindsay Coppleson — Asst. Layout

Special thanks to our faculty advisors:
Judy Haupin and Denise Ostrow
Thanks also to Guy Garon, for putting up with us.

The Pot Pourri is a publication that must, attempt to be everything to everybody. Ideally the staff would follow every student around all year and, at the end, create a yearbook for each individual. Everyone would receive a personal compilation of memories. For the moment we cannot attain this goal. Instead, the staff must wander through the year and attempt to assemble a book full of communal memories. The events that effect each of us, every day. This book then is not my creation, nor the creation of the staff, but the creation of Andover in general. From the events recorded in this book each of us can compile our own personal yearbook, one that describes the specific events of the year that affected each of us individually.

Congratulations Rebekah!

Today is your day.
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the gal who'll decide where to go.

You'll look up and down streets. Look 'em over with care.
About some you will say, "I don't choose to go there."
With your head full of brains and your shoes full of feet, you're too smart to go down any not-so-good street.

And you may not find any you'll want to go down.
In that case, of course,
you'll head straight out of town.
It's opener there, in the wide open air.

Out there things can happen and frequently do to people as brainy
and footsy as you.
And when things start to happen,
don't worry, don't stew.
Just go right along.
You'll start happening too!

OH! THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

To our Super Star!

What a Show!

Congratulations,
Nessa

"The important thing is not to stop questioning. Curiosity has its own reason for existing. One cannot help but be in awe when he contemplates the mysteries of eternity, of life, of the marvelous structure of reality. It is enough if one tries merely to comprehend a little of this mystery everyday. Never lose a holy curiosity."

HUG O' WAR

I will not play at tug o' war.
I'd rather play at hug o' war.
Where everyone hugs
Instead of tugs.
Where everyone giggles
And rolls on the rug.
Where everyone kisses,
And everyone grins,
And everyone cuddles,
And everyone wins.

FOR SALE

INVITATION

If you are a dreamer, come in,
If you are a dreamer, a wisher, a liar,
A hope er, a pray-er, a magic bean buyer ...
If you're a pretender, come sit by my fire
For we have some flax-golden tales to spin,
Come in!

RAIN

I opened my eyes
And looked up at the rain,
And it dripped in my head
And flowed into my brain,
And all that I hear as I hear my head
Is the chinty splash of the rain in my head

One sister for sale!
One sister for sale!
One crying and spying young sister for sale!
I'm really not kidding.
So who'll start the bidding?
Do I hear a dollar?
A nickel?
A penny?
Oh, isn't there, isn't there, isn't there any
One kid who will buy this old sister for sale,
This crying and spying young sister for sale?

Joseph Hong and Maki Hsieh Head the 1991-92 Asian Society

by WENDELL BAKER

On Friday, March 1, Phillips Academy's Asian Society held elections to determine the board for the 1991-92 school year. Over twenty people ran for the six board positions, and a crowd of over forty listened attentively to the candidates' speeches. The 1990-91 board made an initial tally of votes and asked for a run-off for the positions of secretary and treasurer. Then, together, the old board couniled the final votes and new positions were announced the next day.

The new board is as follows: Co-Presidents Joseph Hong and Maki Hsieh, Secretary Anant Raud, Congresswoman Noy Thruphuaw, Treasurer Beverly Min, and Publicity Chairman Benjamin Wan.

The purpose of the Asian Society, as stated by Hong, is to "inform and educate the community we live in about Asian culture, and to learn from ourselves as well. Secondly, the Asian Society also serves as a support group for Asians and Asian Americans on campus." Hong hopes to fulfill the Asian Society's purpose with more guest speakers and open forums for discussion on issues pertinent to Asians and Asian Americans during the Asian Society meetings.

Hong intends to increase the

Even though Josh Allen '91 (140), seeded second, failed to make weight at the morning weigh-ins, the upperweights fared moderately well. Joe Hong '92 (135), a dark horse contender, wrestled seven impressive matches and managed to win an unexpected fifth place. Alex Wolf '92 (145), who held one of the highest seeds for the Andover team, was not able to live up to his seed but scored several points than they expected to be as they went forward to face the Class A New England champs Tabor on Wednesday. However, the cheers turned to tears and the Blue suffered their most devastating loss of the season.

As Worcester was the first of the Blue's three home meets, the boys were more enthusiastic than usual. However, low morale on the part of the Blue couldn't have even come close to saving the unmotivated Worcester team. It was over before it started as the Andover strongmen sent the Worcester wimps off the mat crying, seconds after the whistle. The Blue showed improved strength right from the start as all the lightweight systematichly destroyed their opponents.

Kaban '92, wrestling 135, destroyed a weak opponent in seconds. However, his win, though dramatic, did not come close to the utter havoc wrought by team co-captain Jack Kwan '92 (125) on the unfortunate Worcester wrestler. But even- get better from there as Joe Hong '92 (135) soundly defeated his opponent by a decision. Josh Allen '91 (140), barely breaking a ent only seconds into the first round in his first match ever. After forfeiting the 189 weight class, thereby giving Worcester nearly their only points of the day, heavyweight Dave Schumacher '91 brought the crowd to its feet as he added an enormous Worcester opponent to the list of names taken upon his reign of terror.
